THE LEGISLATURE.

"Mob Violence" Bill Considered in the House—Clerical Assistance for Courts. FRANKFORT, Ky., April 13.—SENATE—The house bill providing for clerks or stenographers for the judges of the court of appeals was reported by committee with a substitute, which Senator Goebel said was a compromise. The substitute, which was adopted, provides for an expenditure of $4,000 per year for seven clerical assistants for said court. The bill was made a special order for Thursday. House bill to transfer the town of Pineville from the list of cities of the fourth class to cities of the fifth class was passed. Senator Hayes then called up the Bell-Crumbaugh contest case, and it was made a special order for next Tuesday. The bill to amend the law providing the manner of fixing or changing the boundary of school districts was made a special order for Thursday.

HOUSE—The house resolved itself into a committee of the whole to consider the "mob violence" bill. Mr. Howard's amendment, providing that the county in which the damage was done should be liable for punitive damages. Mr. Phelps' amendment was also adopted, providing that it must be shown that a person was voluntarily present with a mob before he can be convicted. Further action on that bill was cut off by the arrival of the hour for the joint session.

FIRE AT CRITTENDEN.

Business Portion of the Town Destroyed—The Loss Will Reach $75,000.

CRITTENDEN, Ky., April 15.—The greater part of the business section of this town was destroyed by fire at 3 o'clock Wednesday morning.

The facilities for fighting the flames were poor, and the town hall, a bank, three stores and a livery stable were destroyed.

The fire started in S. M. Robinson's drug store, near Collins and Main streets. Wind carried the flames to the town hall, a three-story structure. This was destroyed.

Mrs. R. Skillman and her children, who had apartments in the building, were barely rescued alive. The loss on the town hall was $10,000; insurance, $1,500.

A part of the walls fell upon the Tobacco Growers' deposit bank, which was damaged $25,000. The other buildings burned were R. Richards & Co.'s dry goods store, loss $8,000; Fletcher & Vallandigham's hardware store, loss $4,000; insurance, $400. Hogsett & Ratliff's dry goods store was saved.

Crittenden is a town of 500 inhabitants, located in Grant county, ten miles north of Williamstown, the county seat, on the Cincinnati Southern railroad.

CHARLES BUNCH,

A Kentucky Convict, Shot and Killed While Attempting to Escape.

EDDYVILLE, Ky., April 15.—Charles Bunch, a white convict, serving two years from Hart county, was shot and killed by a guard late Tuesday evening.

The prisoner was trying to make his escape from a rock quarry in which he was working. The guard ordered the man to stop, but he paid no attention to the warning and ran like wind over the hill. The guard fired with deadly aim.

The coroner's jury brought out the above facts and justified the guard.

The Bookkeepers.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., April 15.—All bookkeepers will be permitted as usual to draw in at the spring meeting at Louisville, Lexington and Oakley. This announcement was made officially here Wednesday and is intended as a contradiction of the rumor that each association would put on its own books in connection with the Mutual system of bookkeeping. It is almost a sure thing that Louisville will not attempt to put on the Mutuals this year.

One Constable Dead, Another Wounded. HENDERSON, Ky., April 15.—Near DeKoven, Union county, Wednesday evening James Green and Wm. Greer, a deputy constable, were shot dead and constable Wm. Deset severely wounded by Wm. Cody and Thomas Hite, who were under arrest for post office robbery. Cody and Hite escaped but were surrounded Wednesday night in a dense forest. They are armed with rifles.

Held for Wife Murder. GEORGETOWN, Ky., April 15.—Clarence Vinegar, colored, who killed his wife at Watkinsonville, this county, Sunday, was arraigned before Judge Bates Wednesday for murder. He waived an examination and was held to circuit court without bail. Vinegar is on y 22 years of age. Jealousy was the cause of the crime.

Horses Must Be Killed. FRANKFORT, Ky., April 15.—The house Wednesday morning reconsidered and passed Representative Hinton's bill providing for the killing of horses infected with glanders, to be paid for by the counties not to exceed $50 per head.

Convicts From Greenup. GREENUP, Ky., April 15.—John Worthington was sentenced Wednesday to the penitentiary for three years for burglarizing L. Reid's store last November. James Pennington, aged 35, was sentenced to two years for horse stealing.

Kentucky Association Races. LEXINGTON, Ky., April 15.—The stewards of the Kentucky association have decided to hold a meeting from May 3 to 10 inclusive. Milton Young and Gus Straus guarantee the stakes and purses.

The Proceeds Goes to Flood Sufferers. LANCASTER, Ky., April 15.—At a musical concert given here Wednesday by home talent, under the management of J. M. Farra, for the benefit of the flood sufferers, $85 was realized.

Funds for Flood Sufferers. BOWLING GREEN, Ky., April 15.—The citizens of this city have already subscribed $410.63 for the flood sufferers of the south, and more is coming in every day.

Wealthy Stock Raiser Dead. HOPKINSVILLE, Ky., April 15.—E. A. Johnson, a wealthy stock raiser, died at his home near Pembroke, from the effects of a stroke of paralysis, aged 60 years.

RIDING ON THE RAIL!

What the Great Steel Highways Offer to Travelers.

From the Birthplace to the Tomb of U. S. Grant—Cheap Excursion Rates New York City.

On account of the unveiling of the Grant Monument in New York City, excursion tickets will be sold via the C. and O. route at greatly reduced rates. Tickets will be sold good going April 23rd to 26th inclusive, good to return leaving New York until and including May 4th. The Chesapeake and Ohio is the only line passing within view of General Grant's birthplace at Point Pleasant, O., and the Seminary at Maysville, Ky., where he received his early education and from which he went direct to West Point.

The famous F. V. Limited leaving Cincinnati at 12:30 noon is the only modern electric lighted train running through to New York without change, serving all meals in Dining Car. Washington Express leaving Cincinnati 9:10 p. m. connects in Washington the next afternoon with Congressional Limited.

The scenery of the Chesapeake and Ohio particularly at this season of the year is more attractive than can be had along the line of any other Railroad of equal extent in the world.

The Shaun Aroon Dramatic Company will appear at

Washington Tuesday, Apr. 20

Opera-House.

In the beautiful Irish comedy drama entitled,

Shaun Aroon!

It is an Irish play of the present time, is one of the best plays ever written and is founded on actual facts. The plot is original, the acting brisk, humor is abundant and the characters are drawn true to life. This play is entirely out of the rut of so-called Irish plays, no red coats, no drunks and no firemen worn-out prison scenes. It is a new Irish play in all that the name implies—new in plot, characters and action. Remember the date, Tuesday, April 20th.
